Over my 23+ year career, I've served as a trusted broker, mentor, and advocate for real estate professionalism and diversity. I've contributed to key strategic planning and advocacy initiatives at the local and state level. I have led efforts to expand Hispanic homeownership through NAHREP and supported legislative efforts as a Hall of Fame Golden R RPAC investor. I have served on Professional Standards and Strategic Planning Committees and have been a strong voice for transparent governance. I also mentor new agents and engage in policy discussions that impact housing, taxation, and fair housing legislation.
