Please share with us your interest in this position and what your goals and objective might be.

I have had the pleasure of serving on the Board of Directors and as the 2026 Advocacy Chair this calendar year. I have enjoyed my service at the St. Louis Realtors and am hoping to continue my service here. I enjoy the understanding of what is happening in our world and the affects of what we do on the communities that we serve, including our own.

My connection to the St. Louis Realtors spans 23 years, and over the last five, I've had the privilege of stepping into a more active role in service to our membership, including serving as a current Board of Directors member.

One of the initiatives I'm most proud of is the Advocacy Roadshow, which I co-founded with Charlie Hinderliter. Together - and occasionally side by side - we visit offices across the region to have honest, candid conversations about what's happening locally and how our association is working to shape policies that protect our industry and the communities we serve. It's grassroots engagement at its best, and the response from members has been genuinely encouraging.

More recently, we've expanded that outreach through a video series on the association's Instagram channel - a way to meet members where they are and keep them informed on the issues that matter most. We're committed to growing that program and making sure no one feels out of the loop.

Continuing to serve on the Board of Directors would be a natural extension of work I'm already deeply invested in - and a continued opportunity to contribute at an even higher level on behalf of the members I care about.

Please provide a 150 word biography to be used on St. Louis REALTORS® website election page

With 23 years as a REALTOR® in the Greater St. Louis Metro Area, Kate Thompson has built her career on one simple principle: understanding matters. Understanding her clients' goals, their concerns, and what "home" truly means to them. And understanding her fellow REALTORS® - because this industry has always been built on the belief that we're stronger together than we are alone.

Born and raised in St. Louis, Kate has deep roots in this community and a genuine love for the region she calls home. Outside of real estate, she is a devoted wife, a proud bonus mom to an wonderful young woman, and a self-described fur baby enthusiast.

Whether she's guiding a client through one of the biggest decisions of their life or showing up as a member of St. Louis Realtors to events and community events, Kate brings the same energy - present, prepared, and genuinely invested in the people and the association she serves.
