Please share with us your interest in this position and what your goals and objective might be.

I believe that serving as a Director is the next step on my leadership journey volunteering my time within the association. I've done the Leadership Academy, I've served on YPN, Grievance, and the Leadership Academy work group, and I would like to take my experience a step up into a "bigger picture" or "high level" volunteering capacity. I also have experience serving on MARIS Board and 7 years of experience on the Leadership Team within my own company that operates 9 offices across the Greater STL Metro area. I think that it's no secret that our industry is under siege from what seems like all angles: federal law enforcement and regulators, class action lawsuits, and tech disruptors and portals. While all of those threats are viewed at a nation-wide level, the real impacts are seen at the local market level and I think my experience within the association, my company, and our local MLS would be a valuable addition to helping our local St. Louis association navigate paths forward.

List any activities, accomplishments or contributions you may have made to the real estate industry	I think most significant contribution to the local real estate industry is helping transition the Leadership Academy from the old format to the new format in 2025/2026.
Please provide a 150 word biography to be used on St. Louis REALTORS® website election page	A native St. Louisan and Mizzou graduate, Matt began his real estate career in 2015 by joining his grandmother's real estate team. After earning his broker's license, he joined the leadership team at Berkshire Hathaway HomeServices Select Properties, where he served as manager of the South County office. During his seven years on the leadership team, he also co-managed the Arnold office and helped guide the merger of the South County and Arnold offices into a unified regional South office. In 2024, Matt transitioned back to sales and now serves clients from the company's West office. He is a graduate of the inaugural 2018 St. Louis REALTORS® Leadership Academy class and currently serves as Chair of the Leadership Academy Work Group, with previous experience on the YPN and Grievance committees. Matt currently lives in Brentwood with his wife, Lauren, and their son, Pierce.
