

Shawn A. Ward (SAW) is a Commercial Real Estate Advisor based in St. Louis, specializing in leasing, acquisitions, investment sales, asset management, and development consulting. His expertise includes industrial properties, ports, rail-served facilities, land, specialty-use assets, schools, churches, and mixed-use developments across Missouri, Illinois, and the Atlanta market.

As Senior Commercial Asset Manager for America's Central Port and a Commercial Real Estate Advisor with Key West Property Partners brokered by eXp Realty, Shawn helps clients maximize property performance, structure successful transactions, and identify strategic growth opportunities. He works with investors, developers, corporations, nonprofits, and public-sector organizations on projects ranging from redevelopment initiatives to large-scale industrial and institutional assets.

Shawn holds both an MBA and a Doctorate in Theology (ThD) and is actively involved with CCIM, NAR, BOMA, IREM, and the St. Louis REALTORS® Commercial Division. He is committed to delivering integrity, innovation, and long-term value in every transaction.
