Steven Shane is an accomplished real estate professional and dedicated community leader in the St. Louis area. He has earned recognition for his service and leadership, including the Pillar of Parkway Award, Keller Williams ALC Member of the Year, and the Realtor Housing Assistance Fund (RHAF) Champion Award. Steven serves as Chair of both the Community Engagement Committee and the RHAF Board, and he mentors new agents through the Keller Williams Agent Leadership Council. His community involvement includes co-chairing the Parkway School District PTO Board, volunteering with Veterans Community Project-where he helps build tiny homes and supports the VCP Village-along with serving in the Kids Rock ministry at Church on the Rock. As an agent with Keller Williams Realty, Steven is known for his strong negotiation skills, attention to detail, and client advocacy. His integrity, service-driven mindset, and broad community engagement make him a strong candidate for director.
