Please share with us your interest in this position and what your goals and objective might be.

I'm proud to be part of the Realtor community and have always valued the role St Louis Realtors plays in supporting its members. With everything going on-from the recent tornado response to the ongoing lawsuits-this feels like an important time to step up and be involved. I'd like to serve on the Board to be a helpful voice, support other members, and work together to keep our industry strong and moving forward. With my background in education and past committee work, I'm especially interested in promoting professionalism, supporting ongoing training, and encouraging engagement across all levels of membership. I want to be a voice that helps represent the needs of our members and contributes to building a strong future for our association.
