

A licensed REALTOR® since 1998 actively serving the St. Louis market for over 27 years. She began her career with Coldwell Banker Gundaker and is currently with eXp Realty. Jody served as Senior Instructor for The Coldwell Banker School of Real Estate teaching both pre-license and continuing education courses for over 15 years. She believes real estate is a service industry, and giving back to that industry is part of the job. Her leadership roles include the Grievance Committee (2018–2020), Professional Standards Committee (2021-2023), RPAC Committee (2025), Director appointment for part of 2024–2025, and serving on the Coldwell Banker Gundaker Diversity and Inclusion Council (2014). A consistent multi-million-dollar producer who has built a successful business alongside her husband and daughter. She holds a bachelor's degree in psychology and a teaching certificate in elementary education. Jody is committed to professionalism, inclusion, and shaping the future of the industry.
