Please share with us your interest in this position and what your goals and objective might be.

I would like to begin by acknowledging the profound impact our profession has-transforming the dream of homeownership into the reality for countless individuals. This mission is deeply rooted in the very fabric of our nation's history, where the opportunity to own land and cultivate generational wealth was out of reach for so many. Now, centuries later, we have the continued privilege to guide consumers on their journeys to becoming homeowners, turning dreams into reality. Few professions can claim such an empowering role in making dreams come true.

As a candidate for the Director position with the St. Louis Association of Realtors Board, my ambition is to uphold and advance our profession through all of its challenges and accomplishments. I am dedicated to serving our members with integrity, protecting the interests of our clients, and exemplifying what it means to be a committed and ethical Realtor.
