

With 23 years of experience as a dedicated REALTOR® and active member of the St. Louis Association, Kate Thompson has seen how real estate transforms lives. She believes this profession isn't just about transactions—it's about making dreams a reality. As a candidate for Director, Kate is committed to protecting and advancing the industry through advocacy, education, and collaboration at the local, state, and national levels. With a deep respect for the role REALTORS® play in their communities, she brings a forward-thinking mindset, strong ethical values, and a passion for service. In a rapidly changing industry, Kate understands the importance of safeguarding the interests of both clients and fellow professionals. She believes we rise together, and she would be honored to help lead that progress. Kate respectfully asks for your vote.
