Please share with us your interest in this position and what your goals and objective might be.

I am deeply committed to the principle of service and believe that leadership is most impactful when rooted in a genuine desire to contribute to the growth and integrity of our profession. Serving as a National Association of Realtors Director offers a unique opportunity to represent the voices of our members, advocate for policies that support homeownership and property rights, and help shape the future of real estate on a national scale. My interest in this role stems from a strong belief in the power of collaboration, transparency, and innovation to elevate our industry. My goals include strengthening communication between the national association and its members, promoting professional development and advancing initiatives that foster ethical standards.
