

Stacy has been a licensed REALTOR® since 2015. Originally from Hannibal, Missouri, she relocated to St. Louis in 2011 and proudly calls the city home. With over nine years of experience in property management, Stacy brings a well-rounded skill set to the table, including residential sales, leasing, investment properties, property management, HOA/condo associations, and evictions. Since 2023, she has been actively involved with the REALTOR® association at both the local and state levels, serving on committees such as Advocacy, Urban Affairs, and YPN. She is also a committed RPAC Major Investor and passionate about protecting and advancing the real estate industry. Outside of her professional life, Stacy is a proud wife and mother. She loves exploring the outdoors, discovering new restaurants, and traveling. In her free time, she enjoys crafting, cooking, gardening, and hosting game nights—always prioritizing quality time with family and friends.
