If the Board of Directors determines that the individual does not meet all of the qualifications for membership as established in the association's bylaws, or, if the individual does not satisfy all of the requirements of membership (for example, completion of a mandatory orientation program) within 60 days from the association's receipt of their application, membership may, at the discretion of the Board of Directors, be terminated.

(b) Dues shall be computed from the first day of the month in which the applicant submits their application and shall be non-refundable unless the association's Board of Directors terminates the individual's membership in accordance with subsection (a) above. In such instances, dues shall be returned to the individual less a prorated amount to cover the number of days that the individual received association services and any application fee.

(c) The Board of Directors may not terminate any provisional membership without providing the provisional member with advance notice, an opportunity to appear before the Board of Directors, to call witnesses on his/her behalf, to be represented by counsel, and to make such statements as he/she deems relevant. The Board of Directors may also have counsel present. The Board of Directors shall require that written minutes be made of any hearing before it or may electronically or mechanically record the proceedings.

(d) If the Board of Directors determines that provisional membership should be terminated, it shall record its reasons with the Chief Executive Officer. If the Board of Directors believes that termination of provisional membership may become the basis of litigation and a claim of damage by a provisional

Section 4. New Member Orientation and Ethics Orientation

Failure to satisfy this requirement within sixty (60) days of the date of application (or, alternatively, the date that provisional membership was granted), will result in denial of the membership application or termination of provisional membership.

Failure to meet the requirement in any three year cycle will result in suspension of membership for the first two months (January and February) of the year following the end of any three year ~~two (2) year~~ cycle or until the requirement is met, whichever is sooner. On March 1 of that year, the membership of a member who is still suspended as of that date will be automatically terminated.

If the REALTOR® (non-principal) does not satisfy the requirements established in these Bylaws for the category of membership to which they have transferred within thirty (30) days of the date they advised the Association of their change in status, their new membership application will terminate automatically unless otherwise so directed by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XVIII - DISSOLUTION

Section 1. Upon the dissolution of this Association, the Board of Directors, after providing for the payment of all obligations, shall distribute any remaining assets within its discretion, to any other non-profit tax-exempt organization.

ARTICLE XIX – MULTIPLE LISTING

Section 1. Authority. The Association of REALTORS® shall maintain for the use of its members a Multiple Listing Service which shall be a lawful corporation of the State of Missouri wholly or jointly owned by the St. Louis REALTORS®.

Section 2. Purpose. A Multiple Listing Service is:

- (a) A facility for the orderly correlation and dissemination of listing information so participants may better serve their clients and customers and the public;
- (b) by which authorized participants make blanket unilateral offers of compensation to other participants (acting as subagents, buyer agents, or in other agency or non-agency capacities defined by law); by which cooperation among participants is enhanced;
- (c) by which information is accumulated and disseminated to enable authorized participants to prepare appraisals, analyses and other valuations of real property for bona-fide clients and customers;
- (d) by which participants engaging in real estate appraisal contribute to common data bases; and is a facility for the orderly correlation and dissemination of listing information so participants may better serve their clients and the public;
- (e) entitlement to compensation is determined by the cooperating broker's performance as a procuring cause of the sale (or lease).

Section 3. Governing Documents. The Board of Directors shall cause the Multiple Listing Service established by it pursuant to this Article to conform to its Corporate Charter, Constitution, Bylaws, Rules, Regulations, Policies, Practices and Procedures and at all times to the Constitution, Bylaws, Rules, Regulations, and Policies of the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®.

Section 4. Participation. Any REALTOR® Member of this or any other Association who is a principal, partner, or corporate officer, or branch office manager acting on behalf of the principal, without further qualification, except as otherwise stipulated in these Bylaws, shall be eligible to participate in Multiple Listing upon agreeing in writing to conform to the Rules and Regulations thereof and to pay the costs incidental thereto. However, under no circumstances is any individual or firm, regardless of membership status, entitled to Multiple Listing Service "Membership" or "Participation" unless they hold a current, valid real estate broker's license and offer or accept compensation to and from other Participants or are licensed or certified by an appropriate state regulatory agency to engage in the appraisal of real property. Use of information developed by or published by the Association Multiple Listing Service is strictly limited to the activities authorized under a Participant's licensure(s) or certification and unauthorized uses are prohibited. Further, none of the foregoing is intended to convey "Participation," or "Membership" or any right of access to information developed or published by the Association Multiple Listing Service where access to such information is prohibited by law.

Mere possession of a broker's license is not sufficient to qualify for MLS participation. Rather, the requirement that an individual or firm offers or accepts cooperation and compensation means that the participant actively endeavors during the operation of its real estate business to list real property of the type listed on the MLS and/or to accept offers of cooperation and compensation made by listing brokers or agents in the MLS. "Actively" means on a continual and ongoing basis during the operation of the participant's real estate business. The "actively" requirement is not intended to preclude MLS participation by a participant or potential participant that operates a real estate business on a part-time, seasonal, or similarly time-limited basis or that has its business interrupted by periods of relative inactivity occasioned by market conditions. Similarly, the requirement is not intended to deny MLS participation to a participant or potential participant who has not achieved a minimum number of transactions despite good faith efforts. Nor is it intended to permit an MLS to deny participation based on the level of service provided by the participant or potential participant as long as the level of service satisfies state law.

The key is that the participant or potential participant actively endeavors to make or accept offers of cooperation and compensation with respect to properties of the type that are listed on the MLS in which participation is sought. This requirement does not permit an MLS to deny participation to a participant or potential participant that operates a "Virtual Office Website" (VOW) (including a VOW that the participant uses to refer customers to other participants) if the participant or potential participant actively endeavors to make or accept offers of cooperation and compensation. An MLS may evaluate whether a participant or potential participant actively endeavors during the operation of its real estate business to offer or accept cooperation and compensation only if the MLS has a reasonable basis to believe that the participant or potential participant is in fact not doing so. The membership requirement shall be applied in a nondiscriminatory manner to all participants and potential participants.

Section 5. Access to Comparable and Statistical Information. Association member who are actively engaged in real estate brokerage, management, mortgage financing, appraising, land development or building, but who do not participate in the MLS, are nonetheless entitled to receive, by purchase or lease, information other than current listing information that is generated wholly or in part by the MLS including "comparable" information, "sold" information, and statistical reports. This information is provided for the exclusive use of Association members and individuals affiliated with Association Members who are also engaged in the real estate business and may not be transmitted, retransmitted, or provided in any manner to any unauthorized individual, office or firm except as otherwise specified in the MLS Rules and Regulations. Association Members who receive such information, either as an Association service or through the Association's MLS, are subject to the applicable provisions of the MLS Rules and Regulations whether they participate in the MLS or not.

ARTICLE XX - COMMERCIAL DIVISION

Section 1. There shall be a separate division of the Association for Commercial Members who elect to join said Division pursuant to Article X, Section 3, of these Bylaws. The Commercial Division shall be operated by separate officers and directors, subject to that Division's Bylaws and regulations, and subject to the following conditions and limitations:

- (a) The Commercial Division Board of Directors shall include a director selected by the Board of Directors of the St. Louis REALTORS®;
- (b) The fiscal year and election year of the Commercial Division shall coincide with those of the St. Louis REALTORS®;

ARTICLE XXI - SEAL

The corporation shall have a seal, which shall be in the custody of the Chief Executive Officer to be of such design as the directors may from time to time determine, but which shall bear the legend, "ST. LOUIS ASSOCIATION OF REALTORS®."

ARTICLE XXII – LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Subject to the provisions of the Code of Ethics and Arbitration Manual of the National Association of REALTORS®, no member of the Association shall pursue or prosecute by action, suit or proceeding civil or criminal, against the Association or any person now or hereafter an Officer, Committee Member, or Director of the Association which claim is based upon any act of said Association or said person relating to the business of the Association, and particularly, any act of said Association or said person in advancing, suspending, expelling or otherwise disciplining a Member.

In the event of suits, claims, or actions in which one or more current or past officers, directors, committee members or employees of the Association or any entity thereof, are named as a result of their status as such or decisions or actions taken in good faith and reasonably understood to be within the scope of their authority or employment during their term as such, the Association shall, directly or through insurance secured for the benefit of such defense, pay reasonable legal expenses incurred in advance of final disposition of such case. The Association shall have sole discretion over choice of counsel. The Association shall indemnify such officers, directors, committee members or employees with respect to any liability assessed or incurred as a result of any such claim, suit or action, unless such liability is determined to be the result of negligent, willful, or wanton actions or inactions by such officer, director, committee member, or employee.

The requirement to defend and indemnify shall only extend to those individuals who served as an officer, director, committee member, or employee at the request of the Association, but only after indemnification and insurance coverage from any other applicable source has first been exhausted. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the Association shall not indemnify or defend any current or past officers, directors, committee members, or employees against claims, suits, or actions brought against it by the officer, director, committee member, employee or their family members.
